Notice Regarding Aliens Who Make Bond

An alien incarcerated for criminal charges in the United States may be subject to detention and deportation by the United States government. Detention and deportation are particularly likely for aliens who are in the United States illegally.

Bonds for Criminal charges have no effect on detention and deportation proceedings or possibilities. An alien who makes bond on all state criminal charges may, in some cases, never obtain release from jail before disposing of his or her criminal case. Furthermore, he or she may be subject to deportation at any time.

A person facilitating a bail bond for an alien and the bondsman may remain liable on the bond if/when the alien fails to appear for court proceedings as guaranteed by contract, in a bail bond
